Dear Mr. Robinson:

Please be advised that I would like to withdraw my request for assistance from you, in view of the fact that as of today, December 29, 2015, I have formally resigned from the Alexandria Civil Service Commission.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Do you mind just sending me an email saying you'd like to withdraw your request because you've resigned from the council? I just need something formal.

Importance: High

Good morning,

I understand with the holidays that this may be a tough time to get responses. There is a deadline for being able to get this on the January Agenda though. If I receive the responses on or before January 3rd then I could potentially get in on the January Agenda. My deadline is actually a week before that but with the holidays I should be able to stretch it. Otherwise, this may have to be pushed to our February Agenda. I just wanted to let you know in case this matter needed to be considered during our January Board Meeting. I hope you have a wonderful holidays.

Thanks,

Brett Robinson

Good morning,

I recently received your advisory opinion request regarding your service on the Alexandria Civil Service Commission. Please answer the following questions in order for the Board to more properly answer your request:

- 1) How does the Alexandria Civil Service Commission regulate Alexandria public servants?
- 2) Does the Commission have the power or exercise its power to investigate Alexandria public servants?
- 3) How often does the Commission have public/private hearings or meetings concerning employees actions or inactions, if any?
- 4) As of today, have you attended one of these meetings or hearings?

I may have some follow up questions based on your responses. I appreciate your prompt attention to this matter.

Thanks,

Brett Robinson
